Pray for Bangladesh

The month of November- December 2022

Wish you the best Christmas

Christmas greetings and Happy New Year 2023 to dear brothers, sisters, and prayer partners. We would like to give a big thanks for your great prayer support and contributions. We are blessed because you never left us from your prayer support and part of your lives. On the hand, we had the time and opportunity to pray for you continually. Because of your prayer support and great contribution, we are happy that God has helped us to overcome a challenging year and the blessing year of 2022 as well in our lives and ministry. We are looking forward to welcoming another blessed year. May the Lord bless you, your family, and your ministry

Vaccination of Covid-19

We are very glad to inform you that our all children are vaccinated last month. Thanks to the people who have helped us to complete this course for our children and co-workers

Final Exam and Result

According to our education year finally, our students completed their final exam. this year around 180 students have taken the exam and most of the students have achieved good results. We are very thankful to the teachers and team of our school, our neighbor school, and the Educare center for their contribution and support. On the other hand, highly appreciated your prayer and support for our students. We give all glory and honor to God for their lives. All of them are so happy about their achievement

House Visiting

You will be very happy to know that our school teachers and management team are visiting the student's houses and parents. There are so students who drop out of education. The purpose of the visit is to encourage them to send their children to school regularly and make a good relationship between teachers and parents. The main purpose is to connect them with developing society.
