News Letter Month of November 2021

Warmest and loving Christmas greetings from our heart and soul! This year Christmas is very special for us because we have gone through many challenges and difficulties.

But our God is a good God. For that reason, we are end of this year and celebrating

Christmas and looking forward to welcoming the new year. During the Christmas season, God has given an encouraging word in my heart that I would share with you. "Involvement of Good Samaritan to the suffering man" The Samaritan Man has shown his love without any cost of labor. Even he invested whatever he had to show his responsibility. He never cross over that suffering man as other men did. From this story, God has encouraged as his disciple I need involvement to save the suffering ones as Jesus is doing. So, next year I want to involve myself more than before to serve the suffering soul to share the love of God. Encourage to me and all let's involve any kind of good works to show the love of God so that suffering people can see the love of God through us.

We wish a great and blessed Christmas to you, your family, ministry and neighbor. Believing that the coming new year of 2022 will be a blessings year for all of us.

Merry Christmas and Happy New year 2022

They have participated in different activities such as carol song, drama, competition, etc. we are blessed to celebrate this pre-Christmas program for our children.

Special Christmas Program for Non-Christian Children

God had opened the door for me to conduct a pre-Christmas program with
